Hassle Hits Hospital

Favre Fired By New Board

Political warfare rocked Hancock General Hospital as the board of trustees convened Tuesday night with two new appointees of the board of supervisors in a 45-minute session punctuated by motions to adjourn.

While the annual meeting had been postponed from September so the new appointees could have a voice on the new officers and committee assignments, no election took place.

By 4-3 votes, the board turned down first a motion to reappoint Sam L. Favre, Jr., as attorney, a post he has held since the hospital's inception, and one to name Cornelius Ladner, lawyer and one of the two new trustees, as Favre's successor.

Only other business transacted before adjournment until November was approval of the September minutes read by Norton Haas, retiring member, a 66-item claim docket totaling $5,503.95, and postponing to the next meeting a vote on the proposed constitutional amendment to change from September to October the date for the date of the election.

After a huddle on the hospital steps on the question of adjourning, the meeting opened quietly with T. T. Reboil, Jr., presiding. But the fireworks started as soon as Haas finished reading the minutes and Reboil asked Delbert Necaise, new Beat 4 appointee, to serve as temporary secretary since Haas' term had expired.

Clifton Sauder of Beat 3 immediately moved to adjourn until next Tuesday and Ladner gave him a speedy second. Favre advised approving the minutes, as Mrs. T. P. Ward of Beat 1 had moved with Hubert Thigpen of Beat 2 seconding, was a technicality that had to be fulfilled. Necaise declined to serve as secretary and Ladner suggested Reboil name Thigpen. The president then asked Ladner to take the minutes but he also declined and Mrs. Ward finally agreed to do so.

Sauder then renewed his motion to adjourn but Favre insisted the minutes had to be approved, whereupon Ladner told Sauder to withdraw the motion.

Hospital Administrator Thomas O. Logue jumped into the melee as tempers obviously were mounting and admitted trustees to "act like grown-up men."

He suggested an executive session to give the board a chance to air its differences in private but Reboil flatly turned that down, adding he wanted everything that went on to be in the newspapers.

Logue continued his efforts to get down to business, citing that in the two years he has been with the hospital there has been "no fussing" on the board.

"You're all over 21 years of age and you know what you're fixing to do to this hospital if you call this meeting off," he warned that the hospital auditors would not serve if politics were injected into operation of the public facility, employees would leave and the medical staff could do likewise.

"I was told not to come to Hancock County before I ever

Blood Donors From Outlying Areas Sought

Extensive efforts to get residents of the northern and western parts of Hancock County to participate in the Oct. 25 drawing were formulated when the Hancock County Blood Bank met Monday night at Hancock General Hospital.

John D. Rutherford, Jr., president, noted that six months coverage for unlimited free blood to previous donors and families ends Oct. 19. "Coverage for donors and their families may be extended by participation at the blood drawing Oct. 25," he declared.

Dr. W. L. McFarland, chief medical attendant at the drawings, said blood type tests and hemoglobin count will be given free to all who attend the drawing from 2 to 8 p.m.

Thomas O. Logue, hospital administrator, pledged full cooperation of hospital facilities with the blood bank activities and program.

Supervisors Authorize Planting of Seedlings

Planting of 300,000 tree seedlings on 320 acres of school lands in the county under the 50 per cent federal reimbursement plan was authorized by the board of supervisors Monday on the recommendation of Area Forester Glen Purvis.

Half the seedlings will go on a 240-acre tract in Section 22, north of the Rocky Hill fire tower and the remainder will go on 16th Section land in the vicinity of Leetown.

The board also authorized Roland Weston to survey the Rocky Hill property for land lines which have not yet been drawn there.

President R. G. Hubbard, Jr., and Supervisor L. M. Frierson of Beat 2 discussed planting additional acreage at this time with the supplement from the federal government available.

On Frierson's motion, three bills from the recent Circuit Court session were approved. They had not been signed by the time other bills for September were presented. Costs were $17,775.32 to the sheriff's department, $702 for Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis and $5 for Chancery Clerk Claiborne Ladner.

Representatives of Comco, radio manufacturers, inquired about the status of their bid to supply two-way radios for the sheriff's department but were told of the county's tight financial condition which did not make such a purchase appear feasible at this time.

Frierson moved with James Necaise of Beat 4 seconding to pay Marie Quintini and Vera Breland of Clerk Ladner's staff $25 each a month from the veterans services fund to compensate for services rendered.

Hebert and Cochran were arrested at the scene in Anasley on the property of Gene Beckendorf, owner of the two calves and two hogs which had been killed and butchered.

The other men, Charles Hickerson and Arthur Derringer returned and surrendered to officers voluntarily. Released on $1,000 bond, a hearing is scheduled before Beat 1 Justice of the Peace Lester Hoyer at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 20.

Other cases under investigation by the sheriff's office include break-ins at Ray's Restaurant, Marquez Bar and the more recent burglary at Trapp's Knock-Knock.

The office is also working in cooperation with the FBI on auto theft case involving a car recovered in Picoyune recently. Eli Thompson was charged with trespassing on property belonging to Lloyd Ladner and fined $5 and placed on probation by Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes of Beat 5.

Initial steps toward formation of a Keep Mississippi Beautiful committee for Hancock County were approved by the board of supervisors Monday with appointments of representatives from Beats 1, 2, 4 and 5.

Named from Beat 1 were Mrs. Thomas Wicker of Pearlington, Mrs. Roy Baxter of Logtown, Beat 2, Mrs. M. Eccles, Mrs. James Fargers of Beat 4, Mrs. William Gasper, all Flatport; Beat 5, Mrs. Jam Crump, Mrs. Elus Thomas Malli, Mrs. Elus Depree, all Kiln; Beat 5, Al Voight, D. Walter Hava and Mrs. A. AFTER STORMY SESSION - Hubert Thigpen, trustee from Beat 2, tells other members of the Hancock General Hospital board some of his views on political flare-up at Tuesday's session. Left is Mrs. T. P. Ward, left is K. W. Peppercorne. Thigpen threatened to quit, later changed his mind.

Negro Altar Boy Drowned

An 11-year-old Meridian altar boy became the county's fourth drowning victim of the year when he was overcome Saturday while swimming off St. Augustine Seminary's Sunnyside pier at Cedar Point.

The victim was Marcus Buckley who had arrived at the seminary Friday afternoon for a week-end retreat with about a dozen other Negro altar boys from Meridian.

A spokesman at the seminary said the boy who was quite small for his age had been in swimming with the rest of the group for about 30 minutes when he got in water over his head. Frater Richard Bruckner, seminarian who had accompanied them on the outing, noticed from the pier that the boy had shouted he could not make it back to his depth and efforts of two chums to save him were thwarted by his kicking. The frater jumped in and tried to grab the child but missed him. It was about five minutes later before his body was found and efforts at artificial respiration failed.

A coroner's jury empaneled by Coroner Emile Piazza late that afternoon returned a verdict of accidental drowning. Jurors were Russell Elliott, J. C. Koenig, Lucien Kidd, Thomas M. Karl, Jr., Thomas M. Karl, T. J. Jacobs and Gerald Favre, bailiff.

The body was shipped back to Meridian by Fabey-Whitfield Funeral Home. The rest of the boys returned Sunday.

Veteran residents said it was the fifth drowning in the vicinity of Sunnyside in 20 years. Last spring Wallace Bourgeois, Jr., and Gaspar Maurig were drowned in Hickory Creek after an all-night camping trip while a Logtown infant was drowned in a home pond during the summer.

Jaquillard Boy Injured as Gun Fires in Face

Arthur Jaquillard, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Jaquillard, Jr., 523 Citizen St., suffered severe facial injuries when his 410 shotgun accidentally fired last Friday afternoon.

Jaquillard, a St. Stanislaus student, and Teddy Heitzmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heitzmann, were rabbit hunting on the Donald Duck Farm at the time of the mishap. He entered the yard of Red Schaeffer and bent over, gun in hand, to get a drink of water when it exploded beneath his chin.

Heitzmann, a short distance away at the time, rushed to his side, then summoned help from a nearby home.

Given emergency treatment at Hancock General Hospital, he was taken to Gulfport Memorial Hospital where sections of shattered jaw bone and more than 100 shot pellets were removed. His condition is reported much improved although he will require hospitalization for some time and plastic surgery will be necessary.

Grader-Train Wreck Fatal To Kiln Native

A Kiln native, Julian Necaise, 48, was killed Tuesday afternoon when the Harrison County road grader he was operating was demolished by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad's southbound Humming Bird train at the Minge Avenue crossing in Pass Christian.

Force of the impact hurled sections of the small grader over a wide area of adjoining land, right of way and adjoining land. Necaise was found next to the cab of the grader about 150 feet from the crossing on the north side of the tracks.

The crash ripped over the right front end of the train engine and another unit had to be brought in before it could continue to New Orleans.

Born June 15, 1913 at Kiln, Necaise had resided in Pass Christian for 35 years and was a county employee. Surviving are his widow; two daughters, Patricia Necaise of Pass Christian, Mrs. Rose Mary Doss, Birmingham, Ala.; two brothers, Leroy Necaise, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Cordelia Necaise, Pass Christian.

Federal services were this morning.

1st 134th Men Off, Rest Go Saturday

Two trucks with an advance detachment of the 134th Transportation Co. pulled out of the National Guard Armory Wednesday morning to lay the groundwork for the arrival at Camp Badine, Ark., next Monday of the whole unit which leaves here between 6:30 and 7 a.m. Saturday. Lt. Charles Bous was in charge of the crew.

The full company which went on active duty Monday has almost completed packing for the departure, according to Capt. Irvin Kingston, commanding officer.

Several hundred county residents turned out Monday afternoon for the farewell parade arranged by Mrs. George Stolz which featured ceremonies on the Courthouse steps when Mayor John A. Scalfie presented Captain Kingston with a gold key to the city of Bay St. Louis and the American Legion gave it the flag of the late Alcee Legendre, World War I veteran and a national figure in Legion affairs.

Russell J. Elliott, adjutant of the local Legion post, served as master of ceremonies, presenting Kingston with the flag and wishing the men well as they prepared to leave for active duty in "an age of co-existence with communism."

Mayor Says To Continue His Court

Mayor John A. Scalfie indicated today he plans to continue to conduct mayor's court eliminating at this time the need for creation of a city court.

The new court has been mentioned for some time and City Commission Council probably will go into the picture thoroughly when it convenes at 10 a.m. Monday.

Reports that council had decided upon an appointment for the judge of such a court were denied by the mayor who emphasized that the first step would have to be the adoption of an ordinance establishing the court.

School Loan Due To Meet Payroll

Superintendent Joe McCulloch was authorized to borrow up to $12,000 to pay October teachers' salaries by trustees of Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District at its regular meeting Monday night.

This month the State of Mississippi's check under its minimum education program was only about half that due the school system, McCulloch reported, and was the reason for the need to borrow. Currently this state fund is low which accounts for the partial payment, he added.

Mrs. Richard Shadoin of Hancock Insurance Agency and Charles Ward, representing Aetna Insurance Co., appeared before the board and suggested a change to a new type of policy of insurance on the school system's property when the present one lapses Nov. 6. The newly approved type of policy, available only to public institutions, requires that 90 per cent of the property value be insured, an amount Mrs. Shadoin said would amount to $7,961 over the five years the policy runs. She also said this policy provided slightly broader coverage than the present one and asked that her firm be appointed filling agent to handle the details with Aetna but fees would still be paid the three firms currently handling this insurance for the schools.

Ward then said the filing agent usually received ten per cent more of the insurance than other participating agents. Since pre-

State Cut Won't Hit County Schools, McCarty Declares

County Superintendent of Education K. G. McCarty said today the state auditor's cut in the quarterly allocation for teachers' salaries will not affect the county system at all.

Should the money not be forthcoming, it can be transferred from other funds to meet the payroll, he declared, adding he would see the schools continue to operate on a nine-month basis.

Cake and Candles

Oct. 5 Grace Gert and Mimi Rasmussen celebrated their birthdays. Today Pat Garcia and Paul Rasmussen blow out the candles. Friday was my happy anniversary to Joyce and Fritz Garcia who married at 14 and 19 respectively, are celebrating 12 years of marriage. Congratulations.

Bessie and Grace Gert entertained at a barbecue supper Saturday night in celebration of their 25 anniversary at the home of the Lloyd Garcias on Union St. The ladies received many lovely gifts for the occasion, along with a very beautiful cake made by the Clarence Garcias. Paying their respects were Laura and Fred Rasmussen, of Bay St. Louis, and Betty Kalla, Frank and Beulah Peterson, Josie and Clarence Herring, David and Pat Garcia, Gloria and Herbert Peterson, Claude and Charlene Garcia, Mable and Lloyd Garcia.

Mess of Fish

Dr. Philip LaNasa and Tom Thom were out in the Peggy Ann in Louisiana waters last week and brought in a catch of 160 blue fish. The Howard Burleighs spent several days early last week visiting son-in-law and daughter the S. J. Broussards and children in N. O. who are here now to spend the weekend with the Burleighs.

The Frantz Jansses, served by food servers over Gentilly Rd. had to return to their home Saturday night and come over Sunday.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Edna Carey, formerly of Clermont, who passed away in Houston Thursday night.

Landrys Celebrate

Another anniversary party of note was that of Alton and Ruth Landry, who celebrated their 25th - Crystal - Sunday last. Cloudy skies and a sprinkle of rain caused the gaily covered tables and chairs to be washed from their al fresco setting into the garage where the chicken barbecue continued and the party progressed throughout the day.

Many sparkling gifts of crystal were presented to the honorees, but a pair of miniature hot air balloons with a beautifully wrapped package caused much excitement over their setting in a sparkling match and camera flash lighting.

Enjoying the festivities were Rose and Bob Richmond, Alfred and Ruth Daspur, James and Rose Landry, Bill and Bert Plunk, Frank and Hazel Chase, Harvey and Nedie Burleigh, Eva Lohrer, Candy Mayer and Rose Cape.

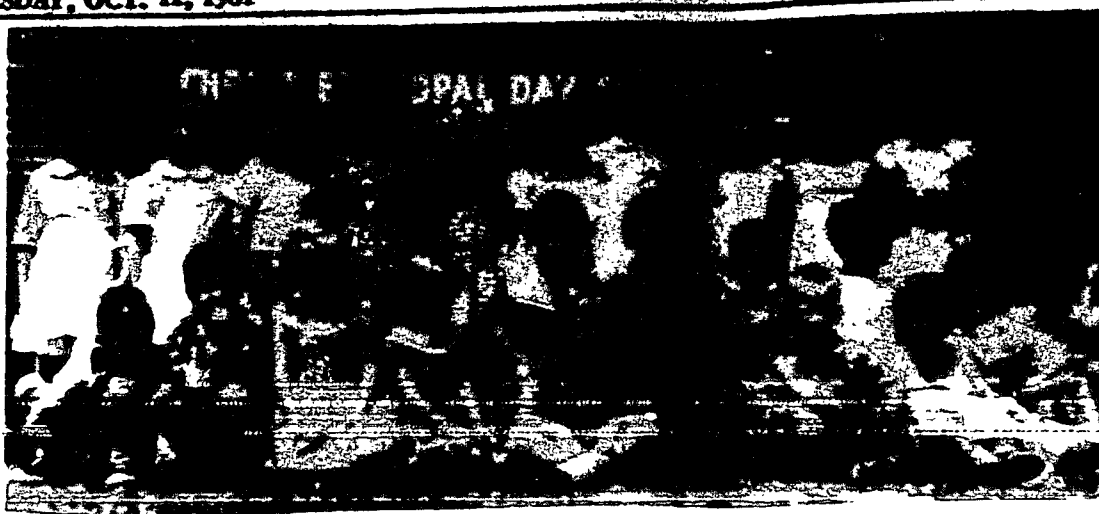

Officers Are Installed

Mrs. T. A. Smith was mistress to the Home Demonstration Club Monday, when the new officers were seated at an impressive installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. Charles Burdport who presented a lovely corsage of Confederate roses to each as she accepted her duties for the year; 1961-62 officers are president, Mrs. K. Rheams, vice president, Mrs. O. Morin, secretary, Mrs. A. Daspur and Mrs. Kintzel, treasurer. How To Grow Old Gracefully brought out some neat quips at roll call. Mrs. J. C. Goodloe, a new member was welcomed.

Blue Jeans Garden Club members are to be the guests of Mrs. Robert Brown on Clermont Blvd. Monday at 7 p.m. Motoring to Monroe, La., last week to attend the wedding of Miss Helene Esposito were Mrs. Eva Lohrer, Buck Lohrer and Elva Buren.

Effie and Bill Tonglet brought my mail this morning as they were on their way to Gulfport, looking as fresh and crisp as the morning itself. As usual they have been busy doing things to furnish up Tel-got-clearing out flower beds, reedifying the hot house for its quota of perishables—and to brighten the inside 3 steps down to the utility room took out a solid panel and replaced it with glass.

Mrs. Ella Rasmussen who has been making her home with son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen left last week for Miami, Fla., where she will spend the winter months with son Victor and his wife. Mrs. Rasmussen had seven stitches removed from her forefinger last Friday. She sustained the injury when an ice tea glass broke in her hands. Home is a dangerous place, eh?

LEARN ABOUT FIRES - Gulfport's fire fighting facilities were inspected by the kindergarten class of Christ Episcopal Day School on a recent field trip in preparation for this, National Fire Prevention Week.

Thoughts

Our Mississippi National Guard unit, the 134th Transportation Co., already on active duty with Uncle Sam, is scheduled to leave Bay St. Louis between 6:30 a.m. and 7 a.m. Saturday. While local organizations have gone all out with a supper, a dance and a parade, at least more than we've heard of in other communities, we wonder if it wouldn't be a mighty good idea for a lot of us to be on U. S. 90 Saturday when the unit pulls out. But please don't go into the armory area and add to the traffic congestion with all the trucks assembling for the convoy.

It was difficult for us to decide for whom to root during this year's World Series. The choice was between the Yankees and the Reds. We finally came to the conclusion that the commies were less dangerous. Seems we were correct.

The City Judge Our Readers Write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
 Enclosed is a letter I have written Mayor John Scudiffe and Commissioners Cyril Glover and Warren Traub:

Gentlemen:
 It has been brought to my attention that the Commission Council of the City of Bay St. Louis is considering the appointment of a City Judge.

During your several terms as council of our city the duties of city judge have been administered by the mayor. At no time during the last city election did any of you, who campaigned as a team, indicate any contemplated change in the existing arrangements as to city judge.

Our concern is not so much the creation of a new job on the city payroll but rather the qualifications of the person appointed to this very important position. Returning political favors by placing persons in administrative and operational positions is one thing, —but placing a person in a position where his decisions can have a life-long effect on ourselves, our neighbors, or our visitors is a matter which should be given serious thought.

While the office of city judge is appointive the name(s) of person(s) being considered should be made known to the public so that those most concerned can be heard.

Any surprise appointment to the office of city judge, without previous publicity, will have every earmark of what it actually is — political expediency!

Your administration has been maintained in office because of our honesty and integrity — maintain that standard.

Answers to the following questions will be appreciated: Is or is not the city council contemplating the appointment of a city judge?

If so, what person(s) is/are being considered?
 How long will the public have to express their opinion: at least a month, I hope?

Very truly yours,
 L. H. RAYMOND, JR.

3 Classes Tie for Jones P-TA Meeting

First, second and fifth grades tied for the attendance award with 10 parents present each at the October meeting of the Valena C. Jones Parent-Teacher Assn. Tuesday night. Each meeting is held to determine how many parents are representing students in each class with an award to go to the class with the most parents attending throughout the year.

Mrs. C. F. Jackson, vice-president, conducted the session. Dues are $1 a year and each community will be represented by captains but dues may be sent in with students.

It was decided to purchase capes and braid as temporary uniforms for band members to perform at the homecoming celebration Nov. 14.

134th Men Off...

(Cont. from Page 1.)

Rutherford, jr. Veterans of Foreign Wars also took part and parading units which swung through the city and beach area
included the Kessler Field, Bay
High and St. Stanislaus bands. St.
Joseph Academy drill unit, students of Christ Episcopal Day School, Legion 40 and 8, Boy Scout Troop 220 and finally the men of the 134th, marching and on trucks.

To simplify loading the trucks
and assembling to depart Saturday morning, Captain Kingston asked relatives and friends to line U. S. 90 to wave farewell rather than coming into the armory area. Parking facilities simply will not handle anywhere near the cars of families alone,
he said, and going there will create much confusion.

The convoy will proceed from the armory along Mel On place to U. S. 90, turning right at Stuckey's. He suggested the public assemble from there on down
the highway.

Saturday night is to be spent near Perryday, La., opposite Natchez and the company is due at Hot Springs, Ark., Sunday night, before moving into Chaffee the next day.

The state will take over the armory while the guard is gone
for at least a year and it probably will be vacant unless another unit is formed here.

Kingston voiced appreciation for the many kind gestures of the citizenry at this time. In addition to parties last week Layne's Service Station invited the men
to a gumbo supper Tuesday night.
Marquez Bar gave a fish fry last night and Mrs. Gerald Favre and Mrs. Wendell Miller baked a huge cake which the men enjoyed at a coffee break Tuesday.

more for additional work. The hikes were approved but not until Ladner expressed dissatisfaction with the board for voting Mrs.
Brelan an increase at the previous meeting without asking his view. "I pay my girls out of my pocket," he declared, saying they should have told him first they wanted more money. Hubbard replied that the board had called on them for extra work and he felt the supervisors should compensate them for it.

A letter was read from C. H.
Kerlan of Gretna, La., complaining about street grading

NEW HOSPITAL TRUSTEES - Cornelius J. Ladner, left, new member at large, and Delbert Necaise of Beat 4, assumed duties Tuesday following appointment by the board of supervisors.

Hospital Hassle...

(Cont. from Page 1.)

In the National Congress and other high places, asserting that the seven trustees had a right to vote and to vote their convictions. "If four of us vote to adjourn until next week it's because we think it's the best thing to do and I presume this is a democracy. If anyone wants to make a motion they have a right to a second."

Mrs. Favre then moved to take up the bills for September
while Saucier and Ladner continued to seek adjournment despite Favre's counselling there had to be a reason for by-passing the bills. "I don't have to give no reason," Saucier told the attorney and Ladner reminded, "There are four of us who see it the other way."

"You're all acting like spoiled brats," Mrs. Ward charged and Thigpen took up her plea to pay the bills. Necaise concurred that bills should be attended, saying, "I'm new here but it looks like you all have been getting along pretty well."

While Favre attempted to outline legal requirements on the claim docket, Ladner challenged that Favre had been appointed for one month only and was not now the board's counsel. Favre replied that the one-month extension he got in September was to carry through the month of October.

"You may not want to state
your reasons but the law says you must pay the bills," Favre declared.

Reboul said he was under the impression the board already had voted 4-3 to adjourn but Favre contended Thigpen had withdrawn his vote and Thigpen said he hadn't voted, which meant Saucier's motion died 3-3.

Ladner then moved to withdraw his motion for adjournment and Reboul called on Pepperdine, treasurer, for the financial statement which showed an adjusted bank balance of $20,278.94 and the claim docket which was some $1,000 less than the previous month. Necaise's motion to pay the docket seconded by Saucier seconding carried.

When Logue next brought up the question of the charity committee which he termed essential, Ladner said he thought that could wait until the next meeting but Mrs. Ward complained that charity cases could not wait. When Neccise moved to appoint the committee, Reboul selected Mrs.
Ward, Pepperdine and Saucier.

"Now you make your motion," Ladner told Saucier but it was interrupted on Pepperdine's inquiry about the amendment on annual meeting time which Necaise finally moved to postpone to the next meeting. This was carried unanimously. Ladner said he had had no opportunity to evaluate it Ladner then authored a motion to adjourn until 7 p.m. next Tuesday and Saucier inquired whether there was any reason to meet then. "There's no reason to have another meeting this month, especially when it costs us $60
each time," Reboul countered.

Logue's final request, to extend bookkeeping space in the Negro lobby as recommended by the grand jury, was tabled pending a report on the cost of materials.

Commenting that if all business were to be carried over until next month the board would be without an attorney, Mrs.
Ward moved for Favre's appointment for one year. Pepperdine promptly seconded. Saucier said he thought that item could go for another month and Necaise suggested keeping Favre for a month
only. Vote was three for—Ward, Pepperdine and Reboul, and four against—Saucier, Thigpen, Necaise and Ladner.

"We just don't have an attorney," Ladner observed.

"Since we have an attorney and we can't need one on the board save the hospital $600 a year," Pepperdine declared as he then moved for Ladner's appointment as board attorney. Mrs. Ward, busy trying to keep up with the minutes,
finally seconded but the motion was beaten by the same 4-3 margin.

Ladner's next effort to adjourn the meeting was successful but Mrs. Ward remarked wryly, "There's not much point in coming next month if we don't do more than we did today."

The board recessed until Oct.

Sitting in on the session were Dr. A. K. Martinovich, jr., chief of the medical staff, and Mrs.
Ward's husband.

Thigpen stormed out of his chair at the conclusion saying he was through with the board.
He, Favre and Reboul conferred privately at length later, a number of trustees having urged him
to reconsider his statement.

Teen times

Not too much activity during the week—students were busy studying for the first series of six weeks tests of the school year. Bands from St. Joseph's did take a few minutes out to march in the big farewell parade honoring members of the 134th Light Transportation Co. of the local National Guard Monday. Several of the girls waved damp handkerchiefs in farewell to the group which departed for the occasion.

Waveland's Bobby Van Calsem tallied twice at Stanislaus Field as Bay High rolled over Harrison Central 45-0 last Friday night. This leaves the Tigers still undefeated in conference play.

Ripple Rausch entertained at an open house following the game honoring members of the football team, cheerleaders and a few other friends in her parents' lovely new home.

Birthday greetings to Ricky Throckmorton who celebrated Oct. 6.

The junior girl bowlers began winter competition at Bay Bowling last Saturday. Carolyn Damlen, who represented Home Pride Milk, was presented the trophy for high average in the summer league. Carolyn will bowl with the Sea Coast Echo team during the cool weather session.

Officers elected in the junior division were Paula Cridder, president; Ann Bryant, vice president; Ann Clark, secretary and Nita Kay Erwin, treasurer. All of these girls are members of the Hi-Balls team sponsored by Kern's.

The junior boys' league bowls at 1 p.m. each Sunday.

Jimmy Mayfield, all-conference lineman at Bay High, played his first collegiate football game when the Tulane frosh met Perkinson Thursday night. Final score Perkinson 14, Tulane 0.

Other local college students who returned home for the weekend included Buddy Wilson and Alvin Bourgeois from Mississippi Southern, Grace Ann Bourgeois, Patsy Noonan and J. D. Bourgeois, from PRC, Larry Sauer, III, has resumed his studies at LSU, Rip Kennedy, another LSU student reports that he is "studying like mad."

Goodnews—Four line Bourgeois, who is hospitalized at Waveland, is improving daily and may be allowed to come home for a visit in the near future.

Pretty blonde Tunnell Backlund of Waveland is now writing St. Joseph Jottings for the Echo.

Jeanne Larroux spent the weekend at home. The frantic pace of rush week combined with her studies have our Jeanne spinning. Delta Jacob, another Loyola student, also weekendend in the Bay.

Teen-age Mystery of the week—Who is the pretty blonde who can be seen brushing a tear from each blue eye every Sunday afternoon as she waves a sorrowful farewell to Gene Ferry as he departs to Delgado Trade School?

Lynn Hall is enjoying rush week before settling down to the serious business of her second year as a student at Gulf Park.

Kenny Deville caught some nice trout off the seawall last Monday.

Edith Traub writes that MSK W is "the most" in the vernacular of the younger set—Mildred Parker, Pat Noonan, Grace Ann Bourgeois and J. D. Bourgeois are similarly impressed with PRC.

Vivianne Korson spent the weekend in New Orleans where she attended a dance given at New Orleans Country Club by Kathie Charbonnette. Kathie attended St. Joseph's last year and is studying now at Holy Name in the City.

Doris Davis is a bit under the required age for Teen Times. However, the young lady bowled a 144 last Saturday which at least makes her eligible for comment in the column. Doris will bowl with Bordages Brothers in the bantam girls league which meets for the first time at 3 p.m. Friday.

Christine Sauer has a lasting memento of the barbecue given on her birthday Sept. 16. All of her guests autographed the tablecloth which she in turn will embroider as a keepsake of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barnes were welcomed as new members and Mrs. Kenneth McCarty's second grade won the room count prize.

Ernest Cuevas, jr., president, presided and Mrs. Fred Johnston gave the invocation.

Mrs. Erwin Necaise and Mrs. John Rutherford, junior activities chairmen, said the affair will be at 8 p.m. Oct. 31 at the Legion Home.

Mrs. Henry Capdepon reported on the membership drive and Mrs. Edward Virgilio discussed the veterans rehabilitation program.

Hostesses for the social hour later were Mesdames Rene Bermond and Dan Ziegler.

After weeks of planning, Jim and I had decided to buy an electric range. Neither of us had ever cooked with electricity, but a lot of our friends had electric ranges and liked them. The automatic features appealed to both of us.

We were on our way to the appliance store when Jim slammed on brakes. "Hey," he said, "our house isn't wired for an electric range. We can't pay for a re-wiring job and a range at the same time!"

He had already turned the car around when I suddenly remembered Tom and Nancy from across the street talking about a Housepower Program. They had needed additional wiring for an electric dryer and had qualified for Mississippi Power Company's Housepower Plan. The company furnished them a heavy-duty service box and paid a part of the installation costs.

Jim and I qualified, too. The appliance dealer explained the program to us, and we had our own electrician install the additional wiring and the range. And, best of all, we've got extra wiring circuits for future appliances.

Be sure you ask about the Housepower Program when you install your next electric appliance or modern electric heat.

HS Scores At Will For 45-0 Victory

Bay High's defending Gulf Conference champions scored their second straight victory Friday night when they blanked the Harrison Central Rebels 45-0 behind a solid ground attack.

The Tigers scored nearly all the time they had the ball, passing twice on downs and scoring on a fumble.

The Rebels took the kick off and scored on a fumble. The Tigers then moved 65 yards in nine plays to score. Back Bobby Van Calsem and Donald Sauter picked up the first down to the Tiger 45, and Rommie Peterson and end for six yards into Rebel territory, halfback Moritz and Van Calsem each ran three for another first down at the Harrison Central 43. Van Calsem ran around left end eight yards to the 35, then 31 yards to Sauter on the Tiger's only pass play, with Sauter finally brought down at the Rebel four. Fullback Van Calsem drove to the one yard and scored on the next play. Peterson pitched out to Sauter on the extra point play, and he was stopped short of the goal.

Peterson's long kickoff put the Rebels in further trouble as they could return it only as far as the 16. After right halfback Norman Kemmer picked up Sauter's first first down of the game on a ten yard run, the Rebels tried, and Davey Smith of Bay came up with the football. Two running plays and two complete passes ran Bay High 17 yards, however, and the Rebels took over on the 30. Gain only three yards in three plays, Harrison Central went into punt formation and a bad punt from center resulted in Bay taking over at the 25 as the play ended.

Van Calsem went through the line of the line for eight yards at the 17 and Lizana gained a first down at the 10 on a seven yard kick-litter. Peterson then hit Sauter with a pass again, this time good for a score. End Tim Sauter took a pass from the Bay quarterback for the PAT, making the score 13-0.

Peterson's kickoff 70 yards blanked the Harrison Central carrier and the Tigers recovered, receiving another scoring opportunity at the Rebel 35. After a five yard field-in-motion penalty, Van Calsem broke through for nine yards to the 31 and then raced 31 yards into the clear on the next play. Peterson passed to halfback Corty Schindler for the extra point.

Aided by a pass interference penalty and an 18 yard run by left halfback Mike Hendry, Central moved into Tiger territory for the first time, but the half ended on a fourth-down play at the 41.

Bay High took the kickoff to start the second half to the 31. Van Calsem went for 10 Sauter picked up a first down on a two yard run, Van Calsem gained three on two carries, and Sauter broke loose for 19 yards only to see the play called back because of another backfield-in-motion penalty. On third down again, Peterson passed to end Richard Schaefer for a first down at the Rebel 38. Two plays later, however, the Tigers lost their only fumble of the night, Harrison Central taking the ball on the 38.

The Rebels appeared to be stalled but a roughing-the-passer penalty gave them a first down at the Bay High 49 and a ten-yard third down run accounted for another first on the Tiger 38. Coach Jerry Gardner's boys could only get to the 33, and Bay High took over.

Sauter went for 11 yards on the first play, Lizana gained six over the middle, and 15 more yards were added when the Rebels were charged with piling on. Van Calsem bucked six yards to the 29 and Sauter made one of the game's two prettiest plays by running 29 yards to score after being almost tackled by two or three Rebels and nearly losing his balance. Lizana's run for the extra point was not good.

Another good kickoff by Peterson kept the Rebels deep in their own territory, and Schindler returned the Harrison Central punt from the midfield stripe to the 10. Halfback Charles Brelant hit the line for three yards, Van Calsem went four to the 10, and Schindler carried the ball into the end zone making the score 32-0. The attempted kick for the extra point failed.

Two passes gave Central short yardage but again Bay High took the ball and drove towards a touchdown. Halfback Sauter carried five straight times for 10, seven, five, three, and three yards, and then on an identical play used last week against Hancock Central. Sauter took a pitchout from Peterson, passed back to the 160-pound quarterback, and Peterson ran through the arms of almost the entire

But Hawks Still Seek Win Wicktom to Ladner Play Scores Twice

Vandave of the Singing River Football Conference built up a 26-0 lead and moved off a last quarter rally by Hancock North Central to defeat the Hawks 26-12 Friday night.

North Central scored both of its touchdowns in the fourth period. Quarterback Albert Wicktom threw to end Berlin Ladner for both scores. Neither of the two extra point attempts proved successful.

The Hawks showed a good offense all during the game, coming through with several long drives, but couldn't cross the goal in the first three quarters. Fullback Rommie Fletcher was the leading ground gainer on the North Central squad.

Head Coach Claude Renfro singled out guard Bodie Jordan for defensive work. Coach Renfro said several long Hawk drives were halted in fumbles or on penalty yardage against North Central.

This Friday night the Hawks return to Gulf Coast Conference play when they host the Harrison Central Red Rebels at St. Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis. The Red Rebels have won one conference game, over St. Martin, while the Hawks will be looking for their first victory.

Osborne Carries Jones to Win

Valena C. Jones Tigers scored on a 85-yard run with 20 seconds remaining in the game to beat the Poplarville Wildcats 12-6 last Friday night at Poplarville. Quarterback Robert Osborne broke away to score the winning run.

Poplarville drew first blood and with the Tigers trailing 6-0, Jeston Smith took a screen pass from Osborne and bulled his way 72 yards to score midway through the second quarter.

The two teams battled on even terms in the third quarter when Osborne clinched the victory as time was running out. Smith, a 190-pound fullback, led the Jones boys offensively with 87 yards in five carries.

Jack Charles Harris, 178-pound freshman tackle, played an outstanding defensive game, according to Coach Willie Bradley. Jones goes to Moss Point Friday night hoping to revenge last year's loss. Next home game is Saturday, Oct. 21, with Ocean Springs. Kickoff time is 2 p.m. at Stanislaus Stadium.

Pro-Am Slated for PCI Invitational

A pro-amateur tourney will be a new feature this year of the annual November Invitational sponsored at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club.

The special event, first to be held on the Gulf Coast since the Mississippi Professional Golfers Assn. was organized recently, will be Friday, Nov. 17, preceding the 36-hole tournament for men and women. Entry fee for the pro-am will be $5 and $10 for the invitational.

Rebel squad to score from 45 yards out. The extra point was good.

Central picked up two first downs via the air route but the Tiger defense stopped the threat. Bay High couldn't move, however, and punter Hammy Morel was forced to kick for the first time, going 28 yards to the 15. Central immediately punted back to Bay High's Sauter at the 50 and following a 10 yard return, Bay High took the ball at the 40. Halfback Mike Lee on runs of 28 and four yards took the ball to the eight, from where Peterson passed to Brelant for the score. The PAT attempt failed, and the game ended on the next play.

Bay High unofficially gained 227 yards on the ground and 115 in the air for a 342 total while Harrison Central got 34 passing and 16 rushing for a total offense excluding penalty yardage of 50 yards. Van Calsem was the leading Bay High rusher with 84 yards in 14 tries while Sauter gained 74 yards in nine carries. Peterson hit six out of 11 passes and Sauter was 1-1. Peterson and Sauter were the leading receivers

Here's new High Torque power for every weight class—light, medium and heavy... the most powerful engines in Chevrolet history... sure saving power and dependability for every job!

There are plenty of powerful reasons for Chevy superiority. High torque reasons. Reasons that range all the way from a mighty new High Torque 409 V8* for heavies, right down to the thrifty Sixes... including the High Torque 261 Six* that's available for the first time in light-duties.

Loads of other reasons, too. Like the new work styling with downward-sloping hoods that let drivers see up to 10% feet more of the road directly ahead. Like Chevrolet's proved Independent Front Suspension for even smoother riding, easier working trucks. Like the heavier duty hypoid rear axles for middleweights and the rugged new I-beam front axles* (9,000- or 11,000-lb. capacity) available for extra-tough jobs on Series 80 heavyweights. Like the longer lived mufflers. Like work-proved Corvair live's (2 pickups and a panel) that haul up to 95's (2 pickups and a panel) that haul up to 1,800 lbs. of payload with low-cost dependability and sure rear-engine traction.
